

Guaranteed Basic Mobility Program Press Coverage

OUTLET	HEADLINE
WESA	Pittsburgh tests program to provide free transportation for lower-income residents
SPIN	Public-Private Partnership to Provide Free Transportation to Low Income Residents in Pittsburgh, PA Through the Launch of a First-of-Its-Kind Pilot Project
Smart Cities Dive	Guaranteed basic mobility pilot offers near-unlimited transit access to 50 Pittsburgh residents
Axios	A big test for universal basic mobility
CIITi Magazine	Free transportation for low-income Pittsburgh residents in 'first-of-its-kind' pilot project
Pittsburgh Magazine	New Pilot Program Will Offer Free Transportation to Some Pittsburgh Residents
MassTransit	Public-private partnership pilot program to provide free transportation to low-income residents in Pittsburgh
Micromobility Biz	Micromobility provider Spin trials public-private partnership to provide free transport to low income residents
TechCrunch Weekend Newsletter	The Station: EVs abound at Monterey Car Week and Tesla amateur testing spreads to include kids
Traffic Technology Today	Pittsburgh pilot studies free transportation for low-income residents
TribLive	Pittsburgh pilot program to offer low-income residents free transportation
Smart Cities World	Pittsburgh removes financial barriers to transportation
Zag Daily	Spin US study gives free transportation to low income residents
Intelligent Transport	Public-private partnership to provide free transport to low-income residents in Pittsburgh